Dear Walter and Lois:

I did write you and at that ^{If I mistake not} prematurely. I thought Cecylia Barczyk and I might be able to come to Santa Barbara between Nov. 15 and 25. But this whole span has been filled.

I am very much indebted to Walter for commending my autobiography to Miss Cantlon. She is favorably inclined if I make some cuts and rearrangements and on that task I am now engaged.

The travelogues, save for a couple of pages per country, could be brought out as a separate entitled Impudence Abroad. But the autobiography must first commend itself and on that I am ardently at work

Gratefully
Roland
