Dear Walter:

You are indeed a gentle man. So thanks for the kind words ... and that ultimate accolade concerning the essence of the venture. It's capture, of course, being every writer's challenge.

You might like to know that other response, by mail, by telephone, even by one telegram, was totally positive. The Dallas Times Herald played the piece on Page One. It is running everywhere. And that, I feel, is more of a tribute to what you created.

We will meet again.

Regards
