Dear Dr. Capps,

Thank you very much for the loan of these photos. They brought back many half-buried memories.

May I say that I feel very fortunate to have been taught by you. "The Monastic Impulse" and "Religion and Politics" have been among the very finest courses I have had at UCSB, and they could not have been more strategically placed than at the beginning and end of my college education. They have touched me deeply and given me much to chew on. Beyond the contents of the courses, however, you have been a marvelous standard-bearer of the best in the academic tradition. Your habits of fairness and equanimity, your wry and gentle touch, your humble passion, have greatly impressed and inspired me.

Thank you for your profound contribution to my education.

Yours,

Tamir Korisheli.
