Dear Dr. Capps:

We are pleased to invite you to present your paper "Education and Memory: Teaching About the Vietnam War" at the Fourteenth Conference on Improving University Teaching.

Your paper will be printed in the conference papers, copies of which are mailed to all conference registrants before the conference. Accompanying the papers will be information notifying you as to whether you should prepare for the individualized or panel format for presentation of your paper. A tentative program showing the day and time each presentation is scheduled will also be included. If you are unable to present your paper, please notify us immediately.

We are enclosing another copy of the registration form. Please send the registration fee and completed form as soon as possible. If you will require audio-visual equipment for your presentation, please write us immediately and specify the equipment needed.

Should you have questions concerning your presentation, please write Dr. Julie Porosky at the above address. We look forward to seeing you in June.

Sincerely,

T. Benjamin Massey
