Dear Dr. Capps ~

My name is Lesli and I am a UCSB alumna who just graduated last June. This fall, I am pursuing a Master's degree in Social Work at USC. Thankfully, I had the opportunity of experiencing Religious Studies 155 last winter quarter.

First, I would like to let you know how much I respect you, not only as a dedicated professor, but also as a concerned and caring individual. I also want to take the time to thank you for enlightening me on such an intriguing and delicate subject. Your course left me with a yearning to delve deeper into Vietnam and its perpetual impact. As part of the Master's program at USC, students must choose from an array of internships in the community. I am proud to say that I selected and have been accepted to the internship program at the Veteran's Administration Medical Center in Brentwood. I will be doing intensive therapy with Veterans of War.

I hope that I can successfully help our brave war veterans and welcome them home, similar to the way that you open your arms and touch their lives.

Sincerely,
Lesli Beckwith
