Dear Barbara and Harry:

It's almost the end of the year, and I've been reflecting on all that has happened to us over the past months, most particularly in connection with our attempt to win a seat in Congress.

One thing is sure: you were there for us at every step of the way from the initial meeting on the driveway through the entire process.

Lois and I will always treasure your encouragement, support and extraordinary generosity. And we hope 1995 brings good your way.

Thanks so much for all you did for us.

Sincerely,

Dear Barbara and Harry:

Lois and I participated in the Bipartisan Congressional Retreat in Hershey, Pennsylvania, at which David McCollough was the principal speaker. I thought of you as he was speaking, and want you to have this copy of his remarks. Hope to see you soon.

Yours truly,
