

His first Visit to our campus was in 1985...when he came to lecture in the class on the VIETNAM WAR...
He returned the next year...then in 1987 was co-teacher of the CLASS....

And I wish to say that I still think of the VIETNAM CLASS as "OUR CLASS" since by far the best year of the CLASS WAS THE YEAR WE TAUGHT IT TOGETHER....

He was the second person I talked with when I was thinking through the rationale for this CLASS...

VOICES OF THE STRANGER.....

the first, as in all instances, being my wife....

I am very, very pleased that he can be here with us today...

And I have asked a couple of people to help us welcome
him to our campus..
