

KERREY TALK

Ex-governor to speak

Former Nebraska Gov. Bob Kerrey will speak Tuesday at a noon luncheon on "Politics — 1987-88" in the Carriage Room of the Earl Warren Showgrounds.

The luncheon is sponsored by the UCSB Affiliates and is open to the public at a cost of $8 a person. The cost to affiliate members is $7.

Kerrey is helping teach two courses this quarter at UCSB, an undergraduate class on religious studies and a graduate seminar in political science.

He stepped down as governor in January despite polls indicating he would have been re-elected easily.

Former governor to preach sermon

Robert Kerrey, former governor of Nebraska, will be the preacher at the 10 a.m. service Sunday at Grace Lutheran Church, 3869 State St. Kerrey is living here temporarily while teaching with Dr. Walter Capps in the latter's UCSB Religious Studies class about the Vietnam conflict. Capps is a member of Grace Lutheran.
