Subject: Religious Studies/Poli. Sci. 153 "Religion in American Politics today" Number 3882-117

WHEREAS Dr. Walter Capps' course "Religion in American Politics Today (Religious Studies/Poli. Sci. 153) has given UCSB students the opportunity to learn in a unique fashion, and

WHEREAS The course allows students to personally listen to and discuss the issues in America today with many of the persons shaping these ideas,

WHEREAS Dr. Walter Capps has proven his desire to offer such a class in order to improve the education received by UCSB students, and

WHEREAS This course has linked the academic education of UCSB students with their education of today's society, and

WHEREAS This course encourages students to take an interest in American society,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Legislative Council of the Associated Students of UCSB acknowledge this outstanding achievement of Dr. Walter Capps and of the Religious Studies and Political Science departments and encourage Dr. Capps to develop more of these classes in the future.

THEREFORE BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that a copy of this bill be sent to Dr. Capps, Chancellor Huttenback, Nexus and the Academic Senate.
